Norwood Senior High School
Norwood, Massachusetts
Volume 67

Senior Class of 2005

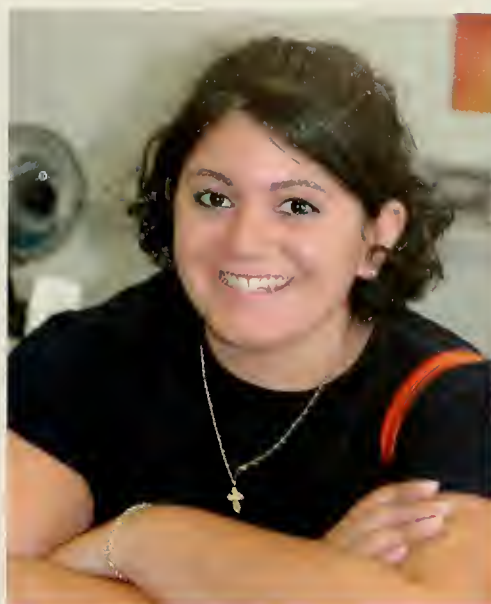

I hope you had the time of your life

In a day and a day, Love

I'm gonna be gone for good again

Another turning point,

A fork stuck in the road

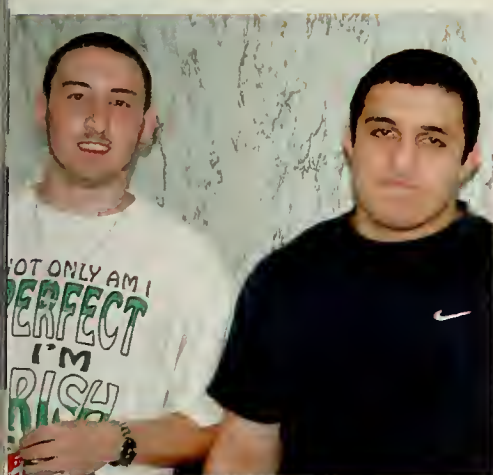

Here's to "goodbye",

Tomorrow's gonna come too soon

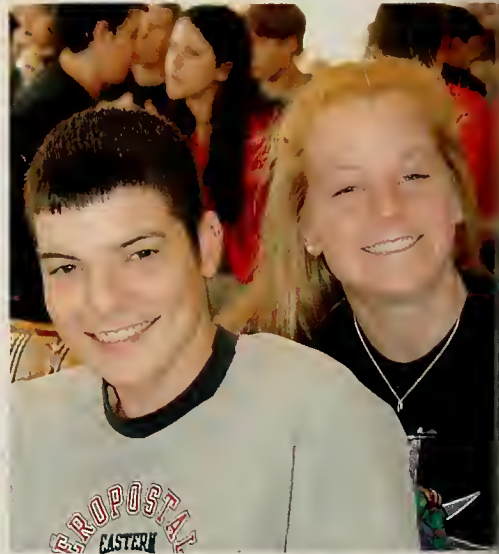

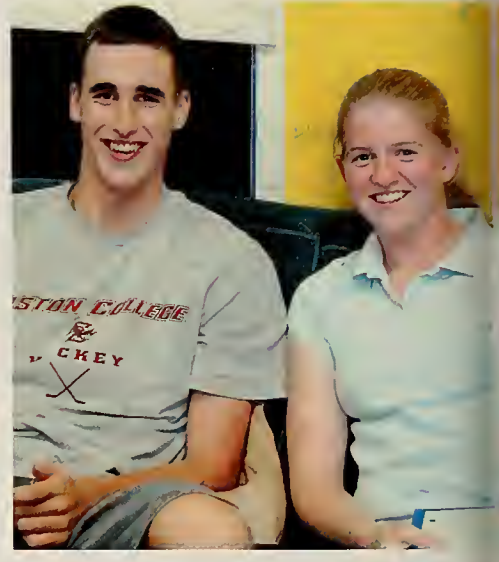

I will remember you,

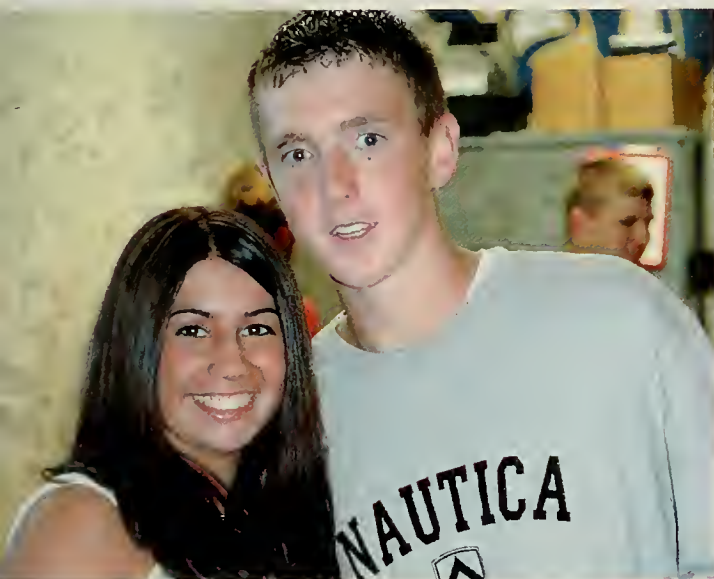

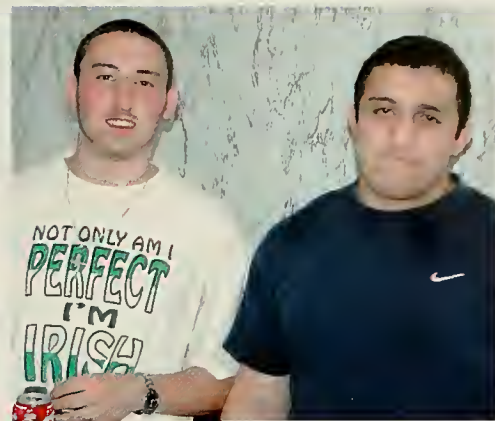

Will you remember me?

Stand upright and be strong

May you stay forever young

Class of . . .

Dedication

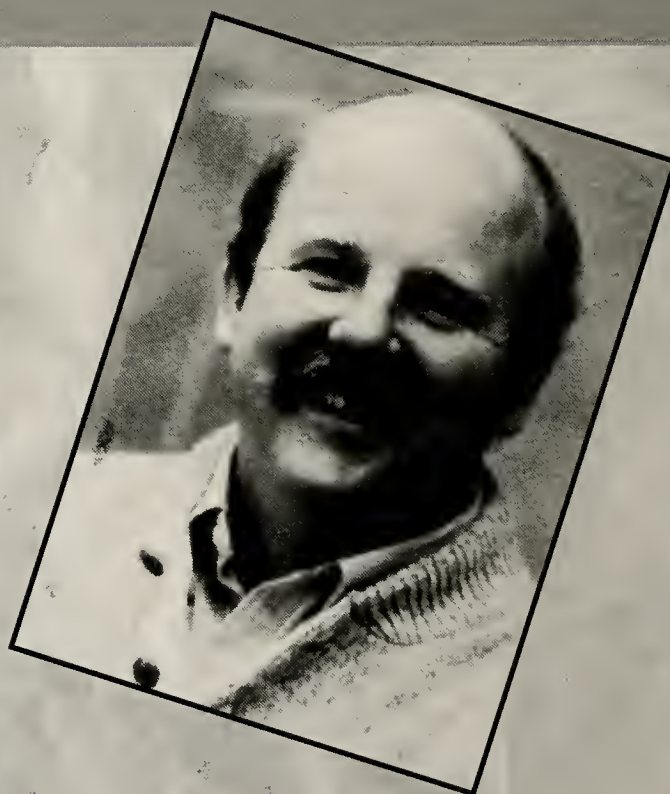

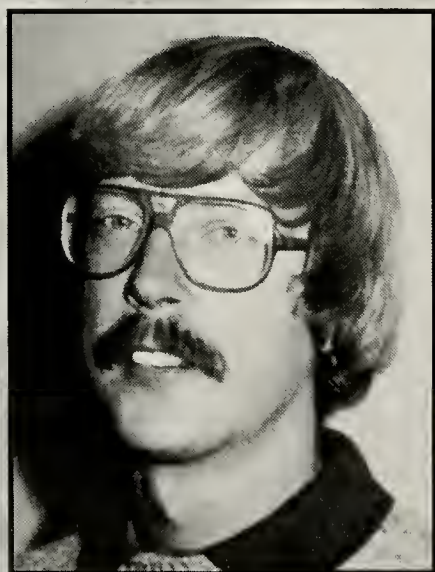

The Class of 2005 proudly dedicates this edition of the Tiot to Mr. David Powell. After 35 years of teaching, Mr. Powell will retire this June.

In 1978, Mr. Powell began his teaching career in Norwood at the Junior High School. Fourteen years later, he entered the "School on the Hill" and quickly became a popular member of the English department. For years he has not only been a favorite teacher to many of his students, but also a favorite to many of his fellow staff members. Mr. Powell is a leader in the classroom and is an important leader in the athletic department. Mr. Powell has been the boys' varsity basketball coach as well as the boys' varsity volleyball coach. He has been selected "Coach of the Year" in basketball numerous times. His dedication and the attention he pays to individuals creates lasting images for his players.

Described by the Student Council president as "The anchor of all student government", he has been an instrumental part in the positive atmosphere of Norwood High and he will be missed greatly.

IN MEMORIAM

"As we go on we remember all the times we had together and as our lives change from whatever, we will still be best friends forever."

Allison P. White

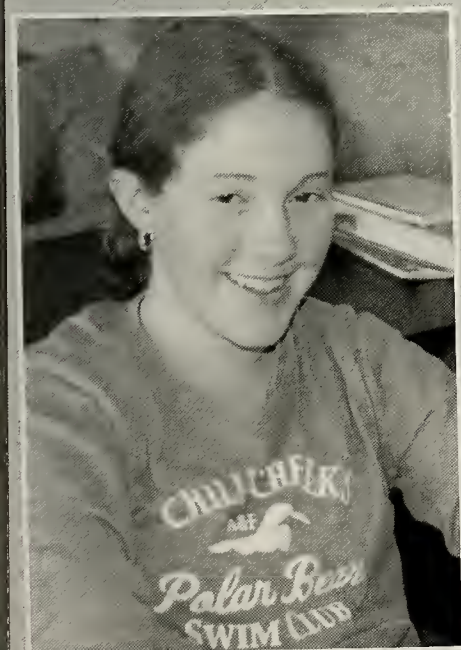

August 1, 1990- September 10, 2004

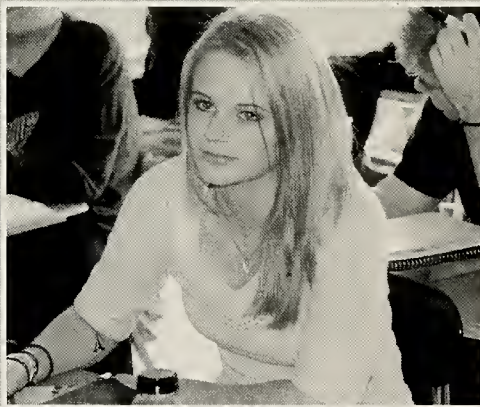

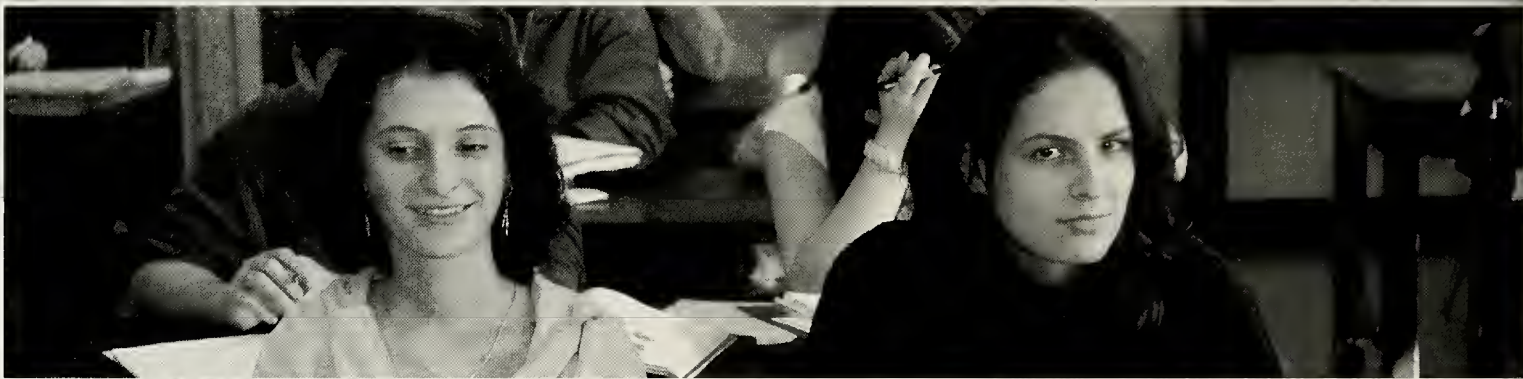

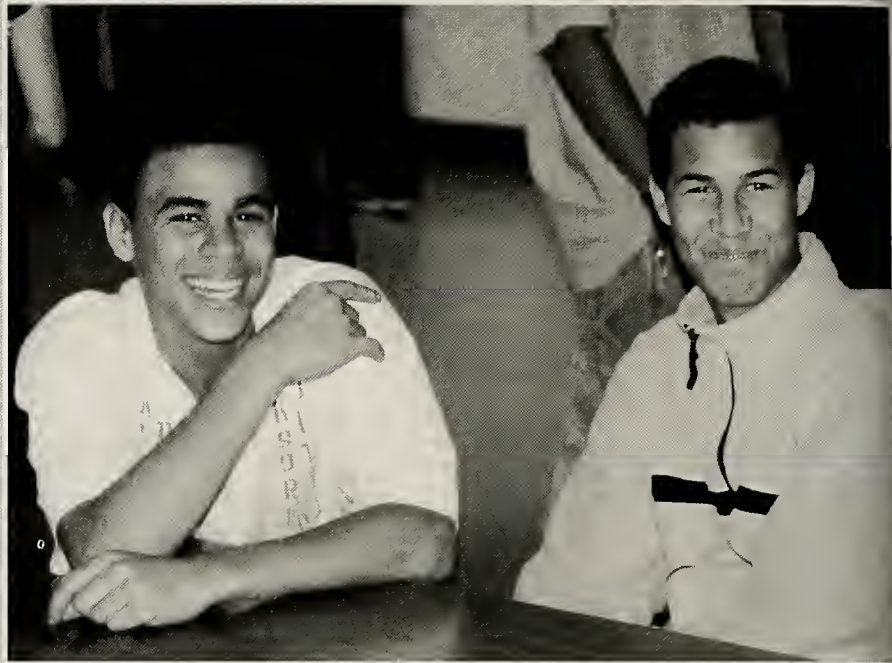

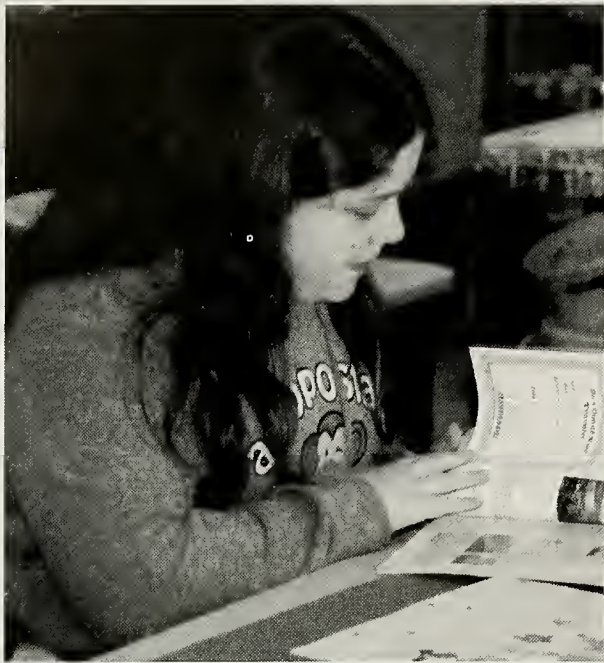

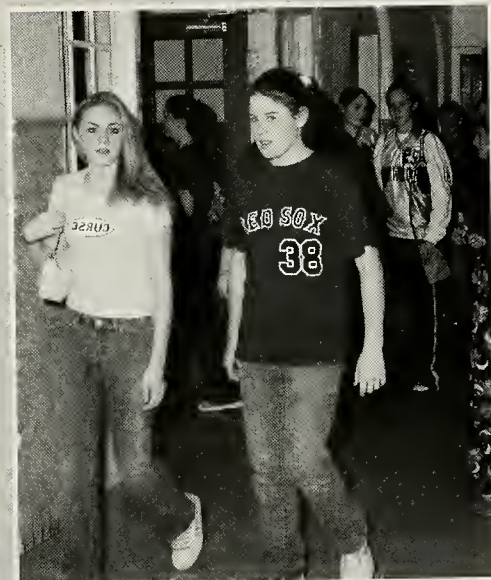

Allison White was a beautiful girl. Her smile could lighten up the world. On September 10th a tragic thing occurred. No one could even speak one word. A lot of people were left saying why. Others could only sit down and cry. The night of the accident friends and family gathered. And went to the spot she was hit while their hearts shattered. We will miss her forever. We will never forget her. Until the day we meet again. She will always be our true best friend. Now a while has gone by and we still wonder why Allison Patrice White had to die.

Born on August 1, 1990, Allison White was a funny, fun-loving, and active young girl. Growing up in Norwood her whole life, she participated in numerous activities. She attended the Cleveland School and went on to the Junior High School. Allison's hobbies were singing, dancing, and playing soccer. She loved Hello Kitty, the beach, going on vacations with her family to New Hampshire, and hanging out with her friends. Her father, Rick, was her soccer coach for many years. Her mother, Cindy, was her Girl Scout leader and brought her to dance classes. Allison's dream was to become a fashion designer. She had a strongly developed skill for designing clothes, which for the past few years she made for herself and her sister, Megan.

Unfortunately, at the beginning of her high school career, all of these dreams and activities came to an end. Allison was struck by a car and died on September 10, 2004 -just her third day of high school. Her family and her friends will never forget the times they had with Allison. She will be forever remembered in the hearts of many, especially the Class of 2008.

Norwood High School Class of 2005,

You have been an exemplary group of young men and women. Your four years have certainly gone by fast. Remember when you first visited the 'hill' as eighth graders in June of 2001? All of us told you it would fly by.

I stand tall and proud when I talk about you, the Class of '05. Excellence in academics as evidenced by your MCAS scores, your instrumental gold medal awards and, who will ever forget the 'Wizard of Oz' performance and art work displays, your athletic abilities on the field and on the court as well as all of your class activities. It has been a great ride!

Take "Norwood pride" with you and don't ever forget your home town roots. Come back to see us and let us know how you're doing, as you begin to write the next chapters in your life.

I am extremely proud to have been your principal - my sincere best wishes to all. Don't forget to invite your 'Old Boss' to the reunions!

*Sincerely,
 George Usevich*

They keep our interest with a collection of original videos and film of most school activities. The team also keeps students and the town of Norwood informed on college information, sports reports, and school activities.

Senior Video is a group of four seniors who have taken T.V. for all four years of their high school career. This is a year long project that requires a huge time commitment. They are supervised by Ms. Flemer as well as Mr. Tolman. They all contributed greatly to the senior video, which constantly wins awards and is appreciated by the class.

Student Council had another productive year. Along with handling school affairs and raising money for the Dan Reen Scholarship Student Council also took part in a school wide effort to raise money for the tragic tsunami victims. The combined total collected was $4,059 which was then matched by Central Jeep car dealership. In the holiday season they sent donated gifts to the Norfolk County Council of Aging. Student Council would like to thank Mr. Dave Powell for all that he has done for us over the past four years as our advisor.

The Norwood boys' soccer team had another tough, but competitive season this year. The team had its fair share of ups and downs, but never gave up or stopped having fun. Under the leadership of senior captians Greg Drummey, Frank Giampa, and Mike Jones, the varsity team scored big wins over Milton and Dedham. All season, Norwood recieved steller performances from forwards Sergio Cardona, Donato D'Aloia, Renato Santos, Andrew Tucker, and Mike Jones. In the midfield, all the magic was conducted by John Chang, Paul Chang, Frank Giampa, Frank Conidi, Chris Neves, and Daniel Chambers. The ever more important defensive goalkeeping duties were covered by Phil Jenson, Robert McGuire, Greg Drummey, Peter Reggiannini, and keeper Nick Strauss. It was an all around team effort all year and the team's success can not be measured by wins and losses. The volleyball season was fun, as always. Coach Veilleux and Coach Lilja, as our new varsity and JV coaches, brought tons of energy and many new techniques to us. The captains were Jen Smith, Kyla Doyle, and Katie Lyons, but this team was truly led by all the players on the team equally. Although the record didn't show it, we played all of our games competitively and many games we ended by losing by only a few points. We had many returning players this year, and nine seniors: Siobhan Gearty, Meghan Cavanaugh, Kyla Doyle, Maria Calabrese, Jen O'Toole, Tina Katic, Jen Smith, Julie Perry, and Tracey DaFonte. There were some highlights in the season, like when Norwood defeated Walpole at Walpole Country Club. They had outstanding play by their two captains all year long. People are saying Paul Finneran and Kevin Crowley are regarded by some as the best captains in Norwood Golf History. They made all matches close. Thanks to senior co-captain Paul Finneran for getting the team pumped up with his pre-game speeches, and thanks to co-captain Kevin Crowley for teaching the team to golf.

This year the Boys' Cross-Country team took on a whole new look. Lead by new, first year coach Mr. Tom Shaw and senior captain Kyle O'Sullivan and junior captain Ryan Henry, the Norwood boys made some much needed progress. Numbers were up this year as well with many promising sophomores running for their first time. Coach Shaw's new running program shaved off a minute or more from every runner's time and led several runners to break 18 minutes. With three wins this year as opposed to last years' one win, it is easy to see that the Mustangs are well on their way to becoming Bay State contenders.

Firefighter's Prayer

By James J. Metcalfe

When I am called to duty,

God,

Whenever flames may rage,

Give me strength to save
some life,

Whatever be its age.

Help me embrace a little child,

Before it is too late,

Or save an older person from the horror of that fate.

Enable me to be alert,

And hear the weakest shout,
And quickly and efficiently,

To put the fire out.

I want to fill my calling and

To give the best in me

To guard my every neighbor

And protect his property.

And if, according to my fate,

I am to lose my life,

Please bless with Your protecting hand,

My children and my wife.

The Class of 2005 would like to honor these three teachers who, along with Mr. Powell, are retiring this year. These four teachers combined have served Norwood for over 120 years. We thank them for the atmosphere they have created and the traditions they have helped to develop to make Norwood High School special. Congratulations on your accomplishments and good luck in the future.

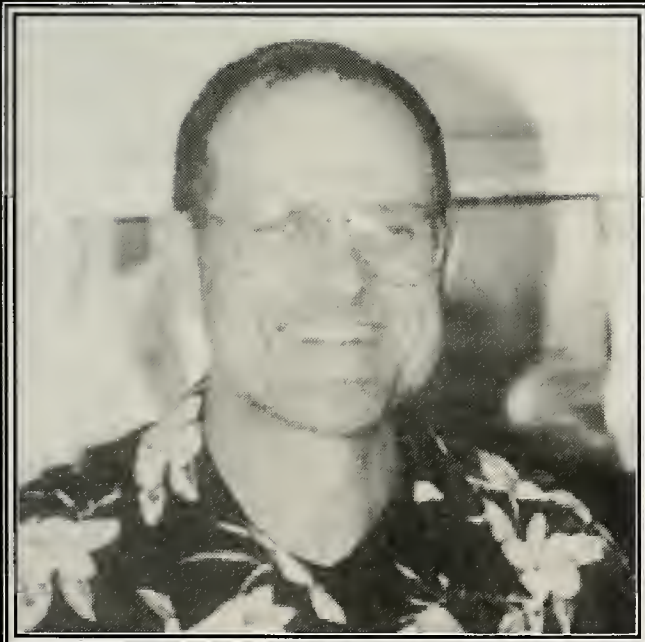

Paula DeCoste

Mrs. Paula DeCoste graduated from Boston State College in 1969 and earned her degree in mathematics. She started her teaching career at the Norwood Junior High North and came to Norwood High School in 1979. She took the dean position in 1995 and served as a dean of the classes of 1997, 2001, 2003, and 2007. All of her classes commend her kind, enthusiastic, and caring methods of working with students as well as her devotion to the school.

William Neviakas

Mr. William Neviakas graduated from Boston State College in 1969 and recieved his Masters degree in Education in 1975. He began his teaching career in Norwood and remained devoted to the town for thirty-six years. He started teaching at the Norwood Junior High North in September, 1969 and in 1983 transferred to the Junior High South. It was not until 1986 that Mr. Nev entered the High School. He is a leader in the classroom, on the athletic field, and among his colleagues.

Michael Ohlson

Mr. Michael Ohlson graduated from UMass Amherst in 1973 where his athletic build and basketball ability were a tough match for Dr. J. He began teaching at the Norwood Junior High North in the same year. In 1975, he earned his Masters in Education. He entered the "School on the Hill" in 1980 as a member of the math department. His patience and enthusiasm led him to coach both basketball and track. He will surely be missed.

There's a place within our hearts
Where we keep our favorite memories,
The ones that never fail to make us smile-
And when life becomes too hectic
It's such a special feeling
To close our eyes and reminisce awhile.
When summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years.
Though other nights,
And other days,
May find us gone our separate ways,
We will have these moments to remember.

The boys' tennis team improved over last year's team but yielded the same results. Junior Galvin Pereira earned MVP for his play at first singles. Sophomore Mohit Mendiratta was the Most Improved Player at first doubles. The team would also like to thank seniors Brijesh Patel and Andrew Rasla. Next year's team will return 6 of 7 varsity players, so we are looking for an improving record. Thanks to Coach Immonen for his hard work during the season.

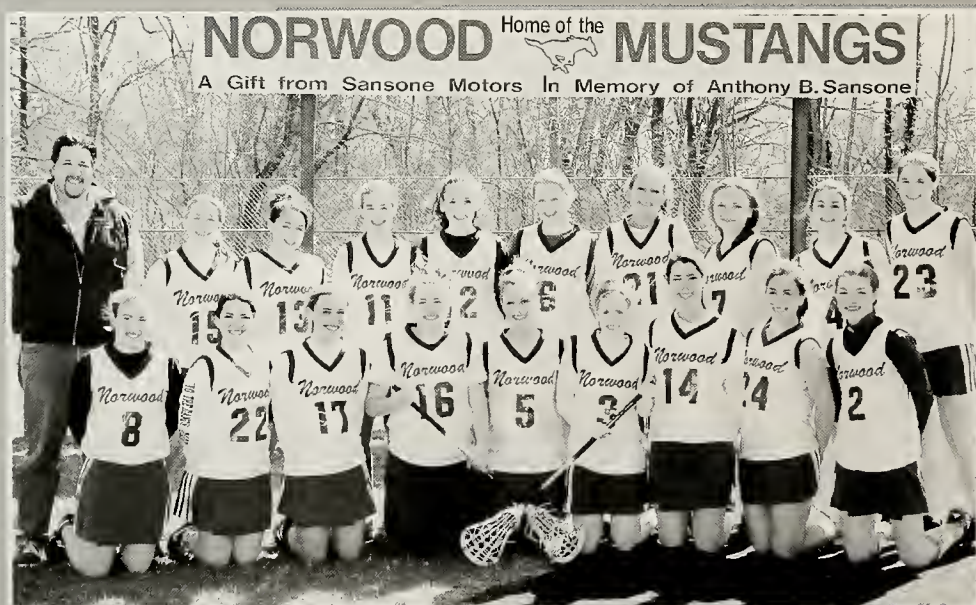

MVP: Galvin Pereira
 Unsung Hero: Manan Patel
 Most Improved: Mohit Mendiratta

For a 4th Straight Year

The Girls' Lacrosse team had a strong 2005 season led by captains Gina Sansone, Ellen Greeley and Alicia Lowe. The team finished the season with a record of 9-9-2. By qualifying for the state tournament for the 4th consecutive year, the seniors made Norwood Lacrosse history. During their season, they played outstanding games against Milton, Canton, Walpole, and Newton North. The three captains along with Courtney Williams were elected BSL All-Stars. The seniors would like to thank their teammates, Coach "Famio" and Coach Daley for another fun season and a great four years.

 Unsung Hero: Ashley Donovan
 Most Improved: Ellen Greeley

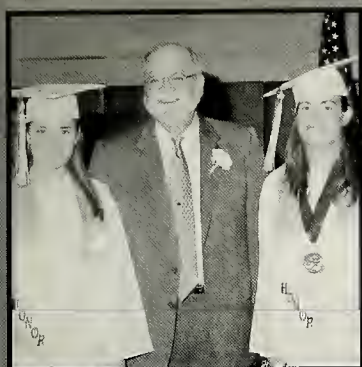

Boys' Lacrosse Survives First Varsity Year

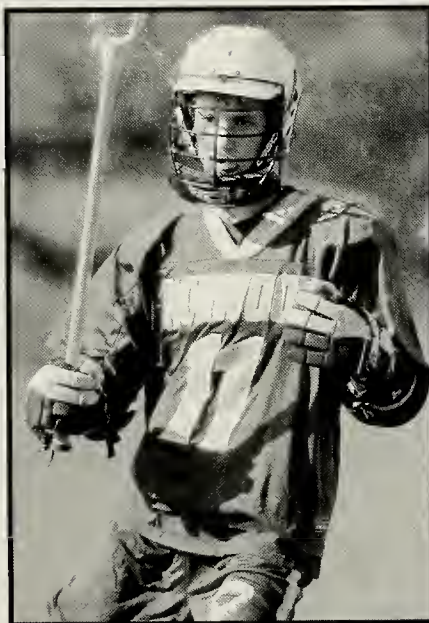

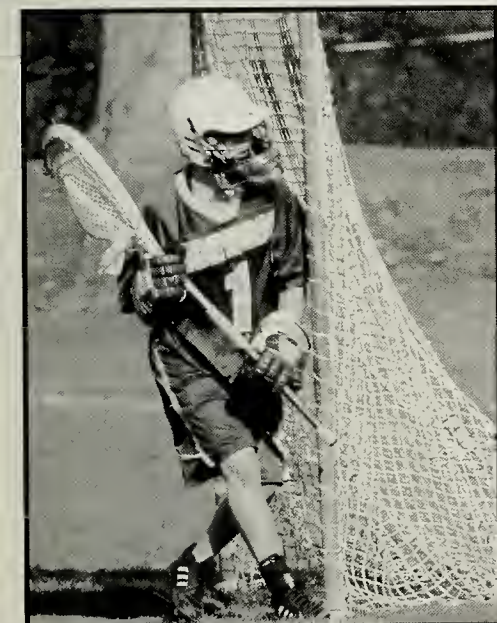

Captains: Chris D'India, Ryan Henry, and Bobby Wallace

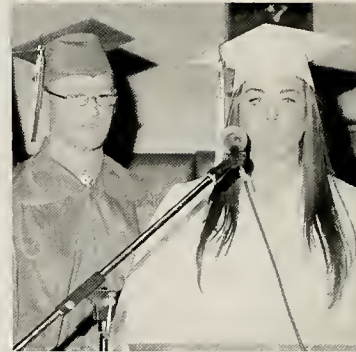

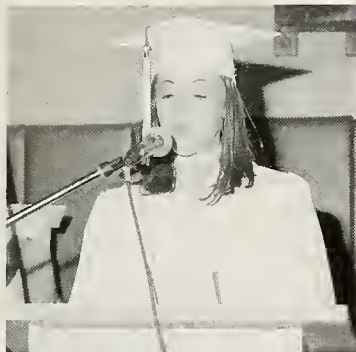

Looks to Improve Next Season

The first Boys' Lacrosse Varsity season turned out to be a positive and progressive one. Captains Bobby Wallace, Chris D'India and Ryan Henry led the team in a very strong Bay State Conference, playing against many teams that ended up in the state tournament. The Mustangs were able to pull off only one win but they remained in many close games including Dedham twice, Weymouth, Framingham and Brookline. The record did not show how the boys played in every game. No matter what the score was the Mustangs never gave up. By the end of the season there were many positives including having almost a full returning roster. The boys look to have a strong season next year. The team would like to wish luck to Coach DeMaio and the rest of the Mustang squad. Ryan Henry was the team's MVP, Joe Carroll was Most Improved, and Kevin Breen won the Unsung Hero award.

Graduation

June 5, 2005

We, the members of the Norwood High School Class of 2005, being of relatively sound mind and body, do hereby acknowledge this document to be our Last Will and Testament:

- Article 1: The Class of 2005 leaves Mr. Usevich our sincerest thanks as well as the new walkway in front of the school for him to park his Corvette on the weekends.
- Article 2: The Class of 2005 leaves Kim Maher...actually, is she even in school today?
- Article 3: The Class of 2005 leaves the most expensive prom tickets ever...but the fewest cavities thanks to Mrs. Shachoy's "healthy" school store.
- Article 4: The Class of 2005 leaves Kevin Youkilis's "mini-me," Mr. Oliveira, a book of new pick-up lines to use on whatever new vertically challenged female teacher is hired next year.
- Article 5: Sean Barnicle leaves "the school on the hill" for UCONN next year...but only if Kristen says he can.
- Article 6: The Class of 2005...leaves the Class of 2006...Mike Young.
- Article 7: The Class of 2005 leaves in a state of shock after finding out that Mr. Forrest is in fact older than Mr. Raab.
- Article 8: The Class of 2005 leaves Stephanie Alighieri . . . a clue.
- Article 9: Our President, Pat Thornton leaves for Penn State with tears in his eyes as he leaves behind his soul mate...sorry Amy, we're talking about Dave.
- Article 10: Many teachers leave alongside this year's seniors, knowing that they wouldn't be able to walk the halls next year without us. To Miss Harris, Mr. Ciplinski, Miss Abrahamsen, Mr. Christ, Miss Curley and Mr. Shaw, we wish you all the best of luck in the future.
- Article 11: Bobby Jones leaves with a check for $384 from selling sweatshirts in Economics...which unfortunately, will go straight to his dental bills.
- Article 12: Kristina leaves Young, J.T. leaves Katie, Justin leaves Amanda, Ashley leaves Egga, and Jen O'Toole leaves the entire sophomore class.
- Article 13: The Class of 2005 leaves Sandra Rios a lifetime supply of Kleenex...but they'll probably be gone by Sunday.
- Article 14: Mike O'Shea leaves his uncut hair, unshaven face, and disheveled wardrobe to any underclassman who thinks they can do a better impression of Tom Hanks in "Castaway."
- Article 15: The Class of 2005 challenges all underclassmen to come up with a more creative form of transportation to a semi-formal than a decorated yellow school bus.
- Article 16: The Class of 2005 leaves still not believing any of Mike Dolabaney's stories.
- Article 17: Kelsey O'Rourke leaves a trunk full of campaign posters still trying to figure out how she lost to Schocka for Girls' A.A. all four years.
- Article 18: Courtney Williams leaves the Class of 2007 Powder puff team shoulder pads, so that they can survive a hit from Jen Davis.
- Article 19: Trung leaves 32 unserved detentions to Brian Duffy.
- Article 20: The Class of 2005 leaves Mr. Hughes a poster-sized picture of Mary Jane to hang in his office next year.
- Article 21: The Class of 2005 leaves our gratitude to this year's retiring teachers: Dean DeCoste, Mr. Powell, Mrs. Fiorillo and Mr. Neviackas...for all their time and dedication over the years.
- Article 22: Brendan Dawson leaves all his poker winnings to Paul Thompson to pay his tab at the Convenient.
- Article 23: The Class of 2005 leaves as one of the laziest in history, having no official senior skip day, no senior prank, and not even a bus full of kids go to Canada.
- Article 24: Mr. Powell retires, leaving Mr. Kane his classroom, fully equipped with the mini-fridge full of Diet Coke and the "real" school store.
- Article 25: After much controversy last year, the Class of 2005 leaves accepting the fact that renovations will only take place at Norwood High when Dave Morse becomes Selectman in 2012...which I think is the same year Dave is scheduled to get his braces off.
- Article 26: The Class of 2005 leaves with mixed emotions of joy and nostalgia and the optimism that our future will bring us as much enjoyment as did our four years at "the school on the hill."

The yearbook sincerely apologizes for the errors in the 2005 Tiot: Jerry Donovan's sister Shannon should be included in his "baby picture ad"; Mary-Ashley Morrison is "mis-hyphenated"; Ms. Leung's name is wrong under her picture. The staff is sorry for these errors.
